HOME FEDERAL BANCORP, INC.
ANNOUNCES SHARE REPURCHASE PROGRAM

Nampa, ID (December 23, 2008) – Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. (“Company”) (Nasdaq GSM: HOME), the parent company of Home Federal Bank, announced that its Board of Directors has authorized the repurchase of up to 5%, or 867,970, shares of its publicly-held outstanding common stock. The Company currently has 17,359,427 shares of common stock outstanding.

The Company will repurchase the shares from time to time for cash in open market transactions. Additionally, the repurchases will be subject to the limitations set forth in Rule 10b-18 of the Securities Exchange Act, the Company’s insider trading policy and other applicable legal requirements. This authorization may be suspended, terminated or modified at any time for any reason, including market conditions, the cost of repurchasing shares, the availability of alternative investment opportunities, liquidity or capital demands and other factors deemed appropriate. The Company has not executed a trading plan under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act.

About the Company

Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this news release regarding future events, performance or results are “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (“PSLRA”) and are made pursuant to the safe harbors of the PSLRA. These forward-looking statements relate to, among other things, expectations of the business environment in which the Company operates, projections of future performance, perceived opportunities in the market, potential future credit experience, and statements regarding the Company’s mission and vision. These forward-looking statements are based upon current management expectations and may, therefore, involve risks and uncertainties. Actual results could be materially different from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause results to differ include but are not limited to: general economic and banking business conditions, competitive conditions between banks and non-bank financial service providers, interest rate fluctuations, the credit risk of lending activities, including changes in the level and trend of loan delinquencies and write-offs; results of examinations by our banking regulators, regulatory and accounting changes, the value of mortgage servicing rights, risks related to construction and development lending, commercial and small business banking and other risks. Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially are disclosed in Home Federal Bancorp, Inc.'s recent filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including but not limited to its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2008, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K. Forward-looking statements are accurate only as of the date released, and we do not undertake any responsibility to update or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances.
