On February 12, 2009, the Board of Directors of Roper Industries, Inc. (the “Company”) amended and restated the bylaws of the Company (the “Amended Bylaws”). The Amended Bylaws were adopted in the light of recent case law and developments in corporate governance practice, to provide that any stockholder advance notice of business must contain information identified in the Amended Bylaws with respect to derivative positions held by such stockholder. Specifically the notice must contain a description of any agreement, arrangement or understanding (including any derivative or short positions, profit interests, options, warrants, stock appreciation or similar rights, hedging transactions and borrowed or loaned shares) that has been entered into by or on behalf of, or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding that has been made, the effect or intent of which is to mitigate loss, to manage risk or benefit of share price changes for, or increase or decrease the voting power of, such stockholder (and any beneficial owner on whose behalf the nomination is made) with respect to the Company’s securities.

The foregoing description of the Amended Bylaws is qualified in entirety by reference to the full text of the Amended Bylaws included as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report and incorporated herein by this reference.
