PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Pall Corporation (the Company) is delayed in preparing and filing its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended January 31, 2008 because it requires additional time to complete the required financial statements and restatement described below. The Company cannot predict when it will complete the restatement, however, it is anticipated to be beyond the permitted extension of the prescribed due date of March 18, 2008.

On August 2, 2007, the Company disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K that the Audit Committee of its Board of Directors, on the recommendation of management, concluded that the Company's annual and quarterly financial statements for the fiscal years 1999 through 2006 and for each of the fiscal quarters ended October 31, 2006, January 31, 2007 and April 30, 2007 should no longer be relied upon and that a restatement of some or all of those financial statements will be required. This conclusion resulted from the Company's previously announced understatement of U.S. income tax payments and of its provision for income taxes, as disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K on July 19, 2007.

The understatement relates to the taxation of certain intercompany payable balances that mainly resulted from sales of products by a foreign subsidiary of the Company to a U.S. subsidiary of the Company. Under the Internal Revenue Code, these unpaid balances may have given rise to deemed dividend income to the Company that was not properly taken into account in the Company's U.S. income tax return and provision for income taxes. The Company is currently finalizing the impact of this restatement.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes ☐ No ☒

The Company has not filed its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended July 31, 2007 or its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended October 31, 2007.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes ☒ No ☐

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As a result of the matters discussed in Part III above, the Company is not able to provide a reasonable estimate of anticipated changes in results of operations for the three and six months ended January 31, 2007, as compared to its results of operations for the three and six months ended January 31, 2008. Results for such periods are expected to be affected by the restatement of the Company's provision for income taxes. Although the impact will vary from period to period for the reasons described above, the Company cannot at this point exclude the possibility that in some periods it may be significant. Such results could also be subject to change to reflect any other necessary corrections or adjustments that are identified prior to the time the Company completes the restatement and finalizes the related financial statements. The Company will report select operating highlights for its second quarter ended January 31, 2008 no later than March 31, 2008.
