On October 19, 2009, Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated ( Morgan Stanley ), the parent company of Van Kampen Investments Inc., announced that it has reached a definitive agreement to sell its retail asset management business to Invesco Ltd. ( Invesco ). The transaction ( Transaction ) includes a sale of the part of the asset management business that advises funds, including the Van Kampen family of funds. The Transaction is subject to certain approvals and other conditions to closing, and is currently expected to close in mid-2010.

Under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the closing of the Transaction will cause each Fund's current investment advisory agreement with Van Kampen Asset Management, a subsidiary of Van Kampen Investments Inc., to terminate. In connection with the Transaction, it is expected that each Fund's Board of Trustees/Directors (together the Boards) will be asked to consider and approve changes to each Fund, such as approval of a new investment advisory agreement with affiliate(s) of Invesco. In addition, the Boards may be asked to consider and approve changes related to each Fund's current service providers, governing documents and agreements that conform each Fund to Invesco's service model for investment management. If approved by the Boards, matters will be submitted to the shareholders of such Fund for their approval.
