On June 19, 2009, PHH Corporation (PHH or the Company) announced that it was commencing a search for a permanent President and Chief Executive Officer. On October 26, 2009, PHH announced the appointment of Jerome J. Selitto, age 68, as President and Chief Executive Officer and as a member of the Board of Directors of PHH and that George J. Kilroy, 61, stepped down as Acting Chief Executive Officer and President of PHH and resumed his prior positions as Executive Vice President of PHH and President and Chief Executive Officer of PHH Vehicle Management Services Group LLC (PHH Arval). Mr. Kilroy remains a member of the Board of Directors of PHH. In connection with Mr. Selitto's appointment, the Board of Directors increased the size of the Board from seven to eight directors with the newly created directorship being in Class III and appointed Mr. Selitto as a Class III director with a term expiring at the Company's 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to fill the vacancy created by the increase. Mr. Selitto most recently served as a senior consultant to Ellie Mae Inc. and, later, as a member of the senior management team. Between 2000 and 2005, Mr. Selitto served as Chief Executive Officer of Deep Green Financial, a web-based federal savings bank and mortgage company. From 1992 to 1999, Mr. Selitto served as founder, Vice Chairman and director of Amerin Guaranty Corporation (now Radian Guaranty), a publicly traded mortgage insurance company. Mr. Selitto previously served as a Managing Director at First Chicago Corporation and PaineWebber Inc., and as a senior executive at Kidder, Peabody & Co., William R. Hough & Company, and the Florida Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The Company and Mr. Selitto entered into an employment agreement effective October 26, 2009 (the Agreement). The Agreement has a two-year term. Mr. Selitto will receive an initial annual base salary of $800,000. He will also be eligible to participate in the Company's Management Incentive Plan, with the first performance period beginning October 26, 2009, and ending December 31, 2010. The Company's Compensation Committee will establish the performance goals. The amount of the actual bonus payable under the plan will be determined based on the extent to which performance standards established by the Compensation Committee are satisfied. The annual performance bonus target is currently intended to be a minimum of 150% of base salary, with a minimum bonus of 0% of target and a maximum potential bonus of 300% of target, based on performance compared to the goal. The bonus, if any, will be paid in a mixture of cash and Company equity awards, as determined by the Compensation Committee.

As part of his compensation package, the Compensation Committee granted to Mr. Selitto non-qualified stock options to purchase 250,000 shares of Company common stock at an exercise price of $16.45 per share, representing the closing price of the Company's common stock on October 26, 2009. The options will become vested and exercisable in three equal annual installments beginning October 26, 2010. In addition, for each share of Company common stock that Mr. Selitto purchases on the open market during the first open trading window after October 26, 2009, the Compensation Committee will grant him one restricted stock unit, up to a maximum of 50,000 restricted stock units, which will become fully vested on the first anniversary of the grant date. Each restricted stock unit will represent the right to receive, upon vesting, one share of the Company's common stock. Mr. Selitto will be eligible to receive annual equity compensation grants when grants are made to other employees. The target value of the annual equity incentive grants is anticipated to be 300% of his annual base salary. Mr. Selitto will also be able to participate in PHH's benefit plans as in effect from time to time, and will be provided with a Company-leased vehicle and financial planning services. The Company will provide reimbursement for relocation expenses for his move to the Philadelphia/Mt. Laurel area.

The Agreement provides severance benefits to Mr. Selitto if he is terminated during the term by the Company without Cause (as defined in the Agreement) or if he terminates employment for Good Reason (as defined in the Agreement), subject to the execution of a general release of any claims against PHH and its affiliates. If the termination occurs during the first year of his term, then he will receive 12 months base salary paid over 12 months, a pro-rated bonus, and payment of up to 12 months premiums for COBRA coverage under the Company's health plan. If the termination occurs during the second year of his term, then he will receive 24 months base salary paid over 24 months, a pro-rated bonus, and payment of up to 18 months premiums for COBRA coverage under the Company's health plan and, under certain circumstances, up to an additional 6 months of premiums for COBRA coverage thereafter. If Mr. Selitto's employment terminates during the term due to death or disability, then the Company will pay his pro-rated bonus. Mr. Selitto will be provided the same change in control severance benefits as are provided to the Company's senior leadership team.
