Item 8.01 Other Events.

Weatherford's two most senior executive officers recently made significant investments in our shares through our executive retirement plan. These transactions are analogous to a participant in a 401(k) plan investing their assets in that plan into company shares.

Weatherford believes these investments reflect the confidence of our senior management in the value of the company. The transactions also substantially reduce the eventual cash burden on Weatherford at the time benefits eventually are paid out.

Pursuant to our Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (the "Plan"), on May 6 Bernard J. Duroc-Danner, our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, elected to convert 100% of his Plan benefit, being a $71 million cash entitlement, into the right to receive 4.4 million Weatherford shares. On May 12, Andrew P. Becnel, our Chief Financial Officer, elected to convert 50% of his Plan benefit, being a $4.5 million cash entitlement into the right to receive 283 thousand Weatherford shares. In each case, the number of shares was calculated based on the closing price on the date of election as required by the Plan. Both transactions have been reported to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission by the filing of Forms 4.

The conversion elections did not provide any new benefit compensation under the Plan or alter the timing of the payment of those benefits. The benefits will be paid in shares on the earlier of the Plan participant's retirement or other termination of employment with the company or January 1, 2017.
