Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 25, 2010, PHH Corporation (we , us or the Company), entered into a Fourth Amendment to the Amended and Restated Competitive Advance and Revolving Credit Agreement, dated as of January 6, 2006, among PHH, as borrower, PHH Vehicle Management Services, Inc., our wholly owned Canadian subsidiary, as Canadian subsidiary borrower, certain lenders and agents, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as lender and administrative agent (the Fourth Amendment) (as previously amended, the Existing Credit Agreement , as amended by the Fourth Amendment, the Amended Credit Agreement). The Amended Credit Agreement became effective on June 25, 2010, and, pursuant to the terms of the Fourth Amendment, those lenders that consented to the Credit Facility Amendment (the Extending Lenders) extended the termination date of their respective revolving commitments from January 6, 2011 to February 29, 2012, subject to an extension for an additional year at our request, provided that certain conditions are met, including that we meet a minimum liquidity requirement of $250 million plus additional liquidity in an amount equal to the principal amount of Convertible Senior Notes due 2012 outstanding at the time of such extension (the Extension Option).

The revolving commitments of each Extending Lender were reduced (the Extended Commitments) such that our maximum borrowing capacity under the Amended Credit Agreement, as of the June 25, 2010 effective date of the Fourth Amendment and through January 6, 2011, is $805 million; the maximum borrowing capacity under the Existing Credit Agreement was $1.3 billion. Based upon our current senior unsecured long-term debt ratings: (i) borrowings pursuant to the Extended Commitments will bear interest at a margin of 350 basis points (bps) over London Interbank Offered Rate or the federal funds rate or 250 bps over the alternative base rate; and (ii) facility fees for the Extended Commitments will increase to 75 bps per annum. No utilization fee will apply to the Extended Commitments. Additionally, should we elect the Extension Option, the Extending Lenders will receive an immediate increase in pricing related to their Extended Commitments of an additional 25 bps per annum effective after February 29, 2012. The termination date applicable to the non-extending lenders will continue to be January 6, 2011, and the size of their respective revolving commitments and the related pricing and fees remains unchanged and subject to the Existing Credit Agreement. Upon the termination of the non-extending lenders commitments on January 6, 2011, the maximum borrowing capacity under the Amended Credit Agreement will be $525 million.

The Amended Credit Agreement contains certain financial and non-financial covenants, including a covenant requiring the Company to maintain consolidated net worth of not less than $1 billion measured as of the last day of each fiscal quarter, a covenant requiring the Company, at all times, to maintain a ratio of indebtedness to tangible net worth of not greater than 6.5 to 1, and a covenant requiring us to maintain committed third party mortgage warehouse capacity (other than warehouse capacity provided by the government sponsored entities) of at least $1.0 billion at all times, of which no more than $500 million may be committed to facilities that are exclusively related to the gestation of mortgage loans prior to sale to third-party investors, such as Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac. The Amended Credit Agreement, subject to certain limited exceptions, also contains certain negative covenants which restrict our ability to, among other things: prepay or redeem certain indebtedness; pay dividends and/or make other restricted payments unless certain conditions precedent have been satisfied; and enter into agreements containing restrictions on our ability to pledge certain of our assets. Such restrictions related to our ability to pay dividends and other restricted payments will be suspended so long as our corporate ratings are equal to or better than at least two of the following: Baa3 from Moody s Investors Service, BBB- from Standard & Poor s and BBB- from Fitch Ratings (in each case on stable outlook or better).

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.
