Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 23, 2004, Micromet, Inc. (formerly known as CancerVax Corporation) (the Company ) entered into a Loan and Security Agreement (the Agreement ) with Silicon Valley Bank (the Lender ). The Agreement provided for a revolving line of credit in an amount up to $18 million (the Line ). The outstanding amounts under the Agreement were generally payable on a monthly basis over the four-year period commencing on January 31, 2006, such that all outstanding amounts under the Agreement would have been paid in full on or before the final maturity date of December 31, 2009. Under the terms of the Agreement, the Company granted the Lender a first priority security interest in all properties, rights and other assets of the Company, excluding intellectual property.

In its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending June 30, 2006, which was filed with the Commission on August 8, 2006, the Company indicated that it anticipated paying off the Line in the third quarter of 2006. On September 7, 2006, the Company paid all amounts due and owing under the Agreement and terminated the Agreement. Effective immediately upon the termination of the Agreement, all security interests and other liens held by the Lender in all properties, rights and other assets of the Company were discharged.
