RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

Edgar Filing: ALKERMES INC - Form S-4/A

On December 13, 2002, we and Eli Lilly and Company expanded our collaboration for the development of inhaled formulations of insulin based on our AIR(R) pulmonary drug delivery technology. These amendments to the collaboration follow the achievement of development milestones relating to clinical progress, and scale-up and manufacturing activities for our insulin dry powder aerosols and inhalers.

Pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement, dated December 13, 2002, Lilly agreed to purchase $30 million of our newly issued convertible preferred stock. We will fund the joint development program for inhaled insulin during calendar years 2003 and 2004. In addition, the royalty rate payable to us based on revenues of potential inhaled insulin products has been increased. Lilly has the right to exchange the preferred shares for a reduction in the royalty rate payable to us. The preferred stock is convertible into our common stock at market price at our option and upon filing of a new drug application with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration for a pulmonary insulin product. The collaboration cannot terminate without cause until January 2005. We will register for resale all shares of our common stock issued upon conversion of the preferred stock.

We entered into a license agreement with GlaxoSmithKline in May 2000 for the use of our AIR technology in the development of multiple product candidates for indications in four respiratory disease categories. Glaxo has not met all of its obligations to develop product candidates under two respiratory disease categories in a timely manner and, under the terms of the license agreement, those two respiratory disease categories automatically reverted to us on November 30, 2002. On December 16, 2002, Glaxo delivered to us notice that it intended to exercise its right to terminate the license agreement by providing us with 60 days' prior written notice, therefore the remaining two respiratory disease categories will revert to us on February 14, 2003.

Section 5.1 of the Registrant's By-Laws provides that the Registrant shall indemnify any director or officer of the Registrant against expenses (including legal fees), damages, punitive damages, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by him or her, to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted by law in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, brought or threatened to be brought against him or her, including actions or suits by or in the right of the Registrant, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the Registrant or any of its subsidiaries or acted as a director or officer or in any other capacity on behalf of the Registrant or any of its subsidiaries or is or was serving at the request of the Registrant as a director, officer, partner, fiduciary or trustee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise.

ITEM 22. UNDERTAKINGS

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

II-6

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

RECENT SALES OF UNREGISTERED SECURITIES

The existing notes were issued and sold in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, to persons reasonably believed by the Existing Notes Initial Purchasers to be "qualified institutional buyers" ("QIBs") as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act or institutional accredited investors or sophisticated investors. For more information on the existing notes see "Description of Existing Notes" in Part I of this Registration Statement.

Conversion of Convertible Promissory Note

In October 2001, we converted approximately $7.5 million of principal and interest that was due under a promissory note payable to Schering Corporation ("Schering"), into 328,645 shares of our common stock in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act. We reasonably believed Schering was an accredited investor based on representations made to us by Schering and by our review of Schering's filings with the SEC under the Exchange Act.

Private Placement to Collaborative Partner

In August 2000, in connection with the execution of the license agreement with GlaxoSmithKline ("Glaxo"), we issued and sold 160,030 shares of our common stock to an affiliate of Glaxo for an aggregate purchase price of $5.0 million, in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act. We reasonably believed Glaxo was an accredited investor, based on representations made to us by Glaxo and by our review of Glaxo's filings with the SEC under the Exchange Act.

Private Placement of Convertible Preferred Stock

In December 2002, pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement, we issued and sold to Eli Lilly and Company ("Lilly") 3,000 shares of our newly issued convertible preferred stock for an aggregate purchase price of $30 million, in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act. The preferred stock is convertible into our common stock at market price at our option and in certain circumstances.
