(b) Departure of Directors

Meadow Valley Corporation announced that in order to comply with new Nasdaq Stock Market rules, which require that listed companies maintain a majority of independent directors, it had accepted the resignations of two non-independent directors; Alan Terril and Gary Agron, from its Board of Directors. Accordingly, the Company's Board is now composed of five directors, three of whom are independent, in compliance with Nasdaq rules. The resignations are effective as of June 15, 2005.
