Item 1.01

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On July 23, 2015, Cigna Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“Cigna”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) among Cigna, Anthem, Inc., an Indiana corporation (“Anthem”), and Anthem Merger Sub Corp., a Delaware corporation and a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Anthem (“Merger Sub”).

The Merger Agreement, which was unanimously approved by Cigna’s board of directors, provides for (a) the merger of Merger Sub (the “Merger”) with and into Cigna, whereupon the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease and Cigna will continue as the surviving corporation (the “Initial Surviving Corporation”), and (b) if certain tax opinions relating to the qualification of the transaction under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), are delivered, immediately following the consummation of the Merger, the Initial Surviving Corporation will be merged (the “Second Merger” and, together with the Merger, the “Mergers”) with and into Anthem, whereupon the separate corporate existence of the Initial Surviving Corporation will cease and Anthem will continue as the surviving corporation. The Mergers, taken together, are intended to qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, but such qualification is not a condition to the consummation of the Merger.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”), each share of common stock of Cigna issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than (i) shares of Cigna common stock held directly by Cigna as treasury stock, (ii) shares of Cigna common stock beneficially owned by Anthem or a subsidiary of Cigna or Anthem (including Merger Sub), (iii) shares with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised and not withdrawn and (iv) shares of Cigna common stock subject to Cigna Restricted Stock Awards (as defined in the Merger Agreement)) will be converted into the right to receive (a) $103.40 in cash, without interest, and (b) 0.5152 of a share of Anthem common stock (together, the “Merger Consideration”). No fractional shares of Anthem common stock will be issued in the Merger, and holders of shares of Cigna common stock will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares of Anthem common stock.

The Merger Agreement provides that, at the Effective Time, any vested Cigna stock options and stock appreciation rights will be converted into the right to receive Merger Consideration with an aggregate value equal to the intrinsic value of such award. Any unvested Cigna stock options and stock appreciation rights will be converted into equivalent awards with respect to Anthem common stock, after giving effect to appropriate adjustments to reflect the consummation of the Mergers. Generally, all other Cigna equity awards (including strategic performance share awards, restricted stock unit awards and deferred stock unit awards) will be converted into equivalent equity awards with respect to Anthem common stock and, in the case of Cigna strategic performance share awards, will be converted into restricted stock units based on the greater of target or certain recent actual performance achievement thresholds.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, the board of directors of Anthem will be expanded to consist of 14 members, comprised of (a) the nine current members of Anthem’s board of directors and (b) five current members of Cigna’s board of directors.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of both Cigna and Anthem, including covenants to conduct their respective businesses in the ordinary course during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time, to not engage in certain types of transactions during this interim period and to use reasonable best efforts to take all actions necessary to cause the conditions to closing to be satisfied as promptly as reasonably practicable. Each of Cigna and Anthem are specifically required to take all actions required to obtain all necessary governmental and regulatory approvals, except to the extent any such actions would have or would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on Anthem, Cigna and their respective subsidiaries, taken as a whole, after giving effect to the Mergers (a “Burdensome Term or Condition”).

Each of Cigna and Anthem is subject to customary restrictions on their respective abilities to solicit alternative acquisition proposals and to provide information to, or engage in discussions with, third parties regarding such proposals, except under limited circumstances that allow the board of directors of each company to comply with their respective fiduciary duties. Notwithstanding these no solicitation restrictions, prior to receiving their respective stockholder approval, (a) the board of directors of Cigna may, (i) in response to a Cigna Intervening Event (as defined in the Merger Agreement) or (ii) upon receipt of a Cigna Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement), change its recommendation that the Cigna stockholders approve the adoption of the Merger Agreement and (b) the board of directors of Anthem may, (i) in response to an Anthem Intervening Event (as defined in the Merger Agreement) or (ii) upon receipt of an Anthem Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement), change its recommendation that the Anthem shareholders approve the issuance of shares of Anthem common stock, in each case subject to compliance with certain notice and other procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to certain customary conditions, including approval by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Cigna common stock entitled to vote upon adoption of the Merger Agreement and approval by the holders of a majority of the votes in respect of shares of Anthem common stock cast with respect to the issuance of shares of Anthem common stock, the receipt of certain necessary governmental and regulatory approvals without the imposition of a Burdensome Term or Condition, the listing of the shares of Anthem common stock to be issued as part of the Merger Consideration on the New York Stock Exchange, the effectiveness of Anthem's registration statement on Form S-4 and the absence of a legal restraint prohibiting the consummation of the Merger. The obligation of each party to consummate the Merger is also conditioned upon the other party's representations and warranties being true and correct (subject to certain materiality qualifications), the other party having performed in all material respects its obligations under the Merger Agreement and the other party not having suffered a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement), in each case as set forth in the Merger Agreement. Consummation of the Mergers is not subject to a financing condition.

The Merger Agreement contains certain customary termination rights for both Cigna and Anthem, including (a) if the Merger is not consummated on or before January 31, 2017 (subject to extension to April 30, 2017 under certain circumstances), (b) if the approval of Anthem shareholders or Cigna stockholders is not obtained, (c) in order to enter into a binding agreement with respect to a superior proposal, (d) if the other party materially breaches its representations, warranties or covenants and fails to cure such breach, (e) if a legal restraint prohibiting consummation of the Merger has become final or non-appealable or (f) if the board of directors of the other party changes its recommendation or fails to publicly confirm its recommendation under certain circumstances or the other party materially breaches its no solicitation restrictions or its obligation to call a stockholder meeting for purposes of obtaining the required stockholder approval.

The Merger Agreement further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, including in order for a party to enter into a binding agreement with respect to a superior proposal or as a result of a change in the recommendation of a party's board of directors, such party may be required to pay to the other party a termination fee of $1,850,000,000 (the "Termination Fee").

The Merger Agreement also provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, including because the required stockholder approval of a party was not obtained at a stockholder meeting, such party may be required to pay to the other party an expense fee of $600,000,000 (the "Expense Fee"). If the Expense Fee is paid by a party and the Termination Fee later becomes payable by the same party, then the Termination Fee will be reduced by the Expense Fee.

In the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated by either Anthem or Cigna if (a) a regulatory restraint preventing consummation of the Merger has become final or non-appealable or (b) the Merger has not been consummated on or prior to January 31, 2017 (subject to extension to April 30, 2017 under certain circumstances) and at the time of such termination, the conditions to Anthem's obligation to consummate the Merger have been satisfied other than those that relate to a regulatory restraint or a regulatory approval, Cigna shall be entitled to receive from Anthem a reverse termination fee of $1,850,000,000 (the "Reverse Termination Fee").

The representations, warranties and covenants of Cigna, Anthem and Merger Sub contained in the Merger Agreement have been made solely for the benefit of the parties. In addition, such representations, warranties and covenants (a) have been made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement, (b) have been qualified by (i) the matters specifically disclosed in certain of Cigna's and Anthem's filings with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission and (ii) confidential disclosures made in the disclosure letters delivered in connection with the Merger Agreement, (c) are subject to materiality qualifications contained in the Merger Agreement which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors, (d) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement and (e) have been included in the Merger Agreement for the purpose of allocating risk between the contracting parties rather than establishing matters of fact. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding Cigna, Anthem or their respective businesses. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties or covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Cigna, Anthem or any of their respective affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties or covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Cigna's or Anthem's public disclosures.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
