Pursuant to Rule 425 under the Securities Act of 1933 and deemed filed pursuant to Rule 14a-12 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

Subject Company: Wachovia Corporation
Commission File No. 333-59616

Date: June 19, 2001

This filing contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements include, but are not limited to, (i) statements about the benefits of the merger between First Union Corporation and Wachovia Corporation, including future financial and operating results, cost savings, enhanced revenues, and accretion to reported earnings that may be realized from the merger; (ii) statements with respect to First Union's and Wachovia's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts; and (iii) other statements identified by words such as "believes", "expects", "anticipates", "estimates", "intends", "plans", "targets", "projects" and similar expressions. These statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of First Union's and Wachovia's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements: (1) the risk that the businesses of First Union and Wachovia will not be integrated successfully or such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected; (2) expected revenue synergies and cost savings from the merger may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frame; (3) revenues following the merger may be lower than expected; (4) deposit attrition, operating costs, customer loss and business disruption following the merger, including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, may be greater than expected; (5) the ability to obtain governmental approvals of the merger on the proposed terms and schedule; (6) the failure of First Union's and Wachovia's stockholders to approve the merger; (7) competitive pressures among depository and other financial institutions may increase significantly and have an effect on pricing, spending, third-party relationships and revenues; (8) the strength of the United States economy in general and the strength of the local economies in which the combined company will conduct operations may be different than expected resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality or a reduced demand for credit, including the resultant effect on the combined company's loan portfolio and allowance for loan losses; (9) changes in the U.S. and foreign legal and regulatory framework; and (10) adverse conditions in the stock market, the public debt market and other capital markets (including changes in interest rate conditions) and the impact of such conditions on the combined company's capital markets and asset management activities. Additional factors that could cause First Union's and Wachovia's results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in First Union's and Wachovia's reports (such as Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current

Wachovia and First Union Receive FTC Antitrust Clearance on Merger Proposal

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - Wachovia Corporation (NYSE:WB) and First Union Corporation (NYSE:FTU) today announced that they have received antitrust clearance from the U.S. Federal Trade Commission for their proposed merger of equals. The FTC clearance pertains to both companies' non-bank financial operations, including asset and wealth management, brokerage and insurance.

Wachovia and First Union said they have been granted early termination of the waiting period required under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act. The waiting period is designed to give U.S. regulators time to review mergers and acquisitions for anti-competitive issues.

"We are pleased to have received this important clearance and we look forward to completing this merger, which we believe will create a powerful financial institution with excellent prospects in high-growth businesses," said Ken Thompson, chairman and chief executive officer of First Union.

The merger is now subject to approval by the Federal Reserve Board and Wachovia and First Union shareholders. Shareholder meetings have been scheduled for July 31, 2001, for First Union and August 3, 2001, for Wachovia.

"We are in daily communication with our shareholders regarding the merits of this combination and their response to date has been extremely positive," said L.M. Baker Jr., chairman and chief executive officer of Wachovia. "Both companies are working diligently to secure all necessary regulatory approvals, and obtaining FTC clearance is an important step in this process."

First Union: (NYSE:FTU), with $253 billion in assets and stockholders' equity of $16 billion at March 31, 2001, is a leading provider of financial services to 15 million retail and corporate customers throughout the East Coast and the nation. The company operates full-service banking offices in 11 East Coast states and Washington, D.C., and full-service brokerage offices in 47 states and internationally. Online banking products and services can be accessed through www.firstunion.com.

Wachovia: (NYSE:WB) is a major interstate financial holding company offering banking and financial services to individuals primarily in Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia and to corporations and institutions throughout the United States and globally. Wachovia Corporation is headquartered in Winston-Salem, N.C., and Atlanta, and had assets of $75.6 billion at March 31, 2001.
